MIDDLE EAST AQUACULTURE FORUM 2015

MEAF-15
TEHERAN, IRAN
DECEMBER 2015

After the success of the first edition in Dubai, the Middle East Aquaculture Forum is reaching out to another prime aquaculture destination in the Middle East. The country's diverse knowledge base and its community of highly trained aquaculture professionals makes Iran, Teheran an obvious venue for the next MEAF edition.

With its central location in the Middle East, its direct access from/to over 78 global destinations and its state-of-the-art meeting facilities and hotels, Teheran is set to solidify the success of the Middle East Aquaculture Forum.

MIDDLE EAST AQUACULTURE FORUM 2015

MEAF-16
DUBAI, UAE
4-5 DECEMBER 2016

Following its successful launch in 2015, the Middle East Aquaculture Forum is coming back to Dubai, in December 2016.

Offering a unique networking platform for Middle East and global Aquaculture experts, MEAF-16 will focus on the cross-over between science and industry, the interaction between the different disciplines and the challenge of how to grow this vital industry in a sustainable manner.

Join us now and profit from the early bird rate.
Abstract submission deadline: 5th October 2016
